

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY

CENTER FOR NAVAL AVIATION TECHNICAL TRAINING UNIT
738 ENTERPRISE AVENUE
LEMOORE CA 93246-5010

IN REPLY REFER TO:

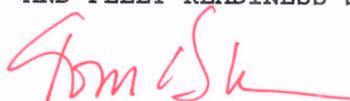

1610

14 Aug 15

COMMAND PHILOSOPHY, VISION AND MISSION STATEMENT

1. The skills of our people form the foundation for combat readiness, and investing in their development strengthens our service and our nation. Our mission is to support the CNO's Sailing Directions and Department of Defense by providing specialized technical training and instilling confidence in the Sailors' and Marines' skills as aviation maintenance professionals; in direct support of genuine and emerging fleet requirements, consistently producing warfighters possessing relevant and effective skills that enable them to succeed in all tasks.
2. To achieve this, we will embrace the following focus areas:
 - a. promote training effectiveness and harness the teamwork, talent and imagination of our diverse force to be ready to fight and responsibly employ our resources
 - b. increase production efficiency and remain ready to meet current challenges, build a relevant and capable future force of professional maintainers, enable and support our Sailors, Marines, Navy Civilians and their families
 - c. employ leading edge information and new technologies in conjunction with operating concepts to sharpen our warfighting advantage against evolving threats
 - d. foster career-long learning and development, and provide our Sailors and Marines confidence in their equipment and in their own skills
 - e. provide opportunities to pursue personal and professional excellence
3. It is my intention to pursue an efficient and dynamic learning environment that enables students to take full advantage of their full potential. We will refine objectives, maximize our support capabilities and improve our capacity to meet the educational challenges today and in the future. We shall remain vigilant for improvement opportunities within the unit and strive to maximize resources while providing the highest quality level of service to our customers.
4. We will foster a culture of teamwork by promoting equal opportunity, embracing the free exchange of ideas and encourage self-improvement. We will support mutual development. We will understand and accept new responsibilities. We will train ourselves as we train others. We will strengthen our commitment and resolve to move forward with clearly defined and appropriately aligned expectations and goals that meet Warfighting First, Operate Forward and Be Ready. We will provide an environment conducive to mission accomplishment while achieving the personal and professional goals of every member in our unit.
5. CNATTU Lemoore is a critical component in the development of the world's greatest maritime force. Our flexibility to adapt to meet present and future challenges is what will enable our unit to deliver professional maintainers that will be ready to fight and win today, while building the ability to win tomorrow.

THE "ELITE OF THE FLEET" AND FLEET READINESS STARTS HERE!

T. A. DECKER