1. Purpose. To prescribe the number of initial Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps (NROTC) Navy option offers necessary for Continuous National Selection Board (CNSB) review to attain NROTC Navy option enrollment targets for academic year 2017-2018. Naval Service Training Command's (NSTC) production management guidance for granting four-year NROTC scholarships to include Immediate Scholarship Reservations (ISR); Alternative Scholarship Reservations (ASR); Minority Serving Institution Scholarship Reservations (MSISR); Language, Regional Expertise, and Culture Awareness (LREC) scholarships; and two-year and three-year side-load scholarships ensures NROTC officer production meets officer accession requirements established in the reference (a).

b. Reference (c) directs CNSB members to identify NROTC applicants who possess the greatest potential for success both academically and as naval officers. It also directs that the CNSB will validate ISR NROTC scholarship offers made by Naval Recruiting Command. Authorized number of scholarship offers are listed in Tables A and B.

c. Reference (d) provides procedural guidance to facilitate achieving the annual requirement of commissioning 20 NROTC LREC program officers.
